

RANDOLPH

Fabien Dupuis Died of Heart Failure Sunday Morning.

Fabien Dupuis, who lived on School street with his daughter, Mrs. Nettie Rix, died suddenly on Sunday morning. Mr. Dupuis got up and started the fire, as was his custom, and went back to bed, and when the family got up he was found dead. For a long time he has had serious trouble with his heart, and it was known that he was in very poor health, but his sudden death was not anticipated. Mr. Dupuis was a veteran of the Civil war and had lived in town many years. Up to the time of his failing health, he worked for a long time in the Sargent, Osmond & Roundy foundry. He was a member of the U. A. post, of the Masonic fraternity, and of the Order of Eastern Star. Deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Rix, with whom and Mrs. W. O. Morrill of Springfield, he lived, Mrs. John Morrill of Tunbridge, Mass., besides several grandchildren.

L. C. Drew, the janitor at the high school building, met with quite an accident to his foot on Saturday afternoon. While lowering the cover of the place in which the coal is stored, he fell on his foot, taking off the nail from the large toe, and crushing some of the bone, so that it had to be cut away down to the first joint.

Mrs. A. A. Priest, who has been in Springfield for the past week with her sister, returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moulton of Montpelier came Saturday for a short visit with Mrs. J. H. Moulton and Miss Mary Moulton of this place.

Mrs. V. D. Porter went to Burlington Friday and from there to St. Albans for a short stay with friends.

Miss Della Ladue, who has been here from Richmond, called by the accident of her father, Joseph Ladue, who fractured his ankle while at work at the Marcott mill, left for her home on Friday.

Miss Aurelia Danyow went to Hartford, Conn., Saturday and there in about a week will be joined by her sister, Miss Hazel Danyow, and they will go to Jacksonville, Fla., for the winter. Miss Maud Johnston of this place will also join them and the party will go on together.

Mrs. George, who lives in the Seth Flint house, is said to be in very poor health, and is in a bad condition.

Mrs. John Morrill of Tunbridge came Sunday, having been summoned by the death of her father, Fabien Dupuis.

BETHEL

Mrs. H. W. Jeffs of Brattleboro is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Fred Williamson of this place and Mrs. E. A. Roundy of Royalton, and on her return home this week her father, William Doubleday, will go with her for a winter's stay.

C. D. Cushing was in Boston on business last Saturday.

The Y. M. C. A. war fund in Bethel has reached in cash and pledges, $712.50.

George Stickle of Barnard killed a deer and a bear in Plymouth during the recent open season for deer.

Melvin M. Cox has moved into his newly completed house on Pleasant street.

Seven carloads of Christmas trees have been shipped from this station by H. G. LaBar of Water Gap, Pa., and four carloads more will be shipped this season.

Several carloads are being shipped from Rochester. The price paid is 12 cents a bundle, compared with 10 cents last year.

Operations for appendicitis were performed last Saturday at Dr. Greene's sanatorium on Mrs. Elmer Patch of East Granville and George Lovett of Rochester.

Mrs. Mary Hubbard returned to her home in Rochester last Saturday and Mrs. J. F. Demers to her home in this village yesterday after being treated at the sanatorium. Mrs. Melba Abbott of Essex Junction, George Wells of Warren and Mrs. Guy Farr of this village are at the sanatorium for treatment.

Vail Godfrey is working at the Demers bakery.

W. L. Hanchett is working in Springfield.

Mrs. C. N. Arnold and her little daughter are in Ludlow for a few days' visit.

HANCOCK

Arthur LeBar is visiting relatives in Madrid, N. Y.

Mrs. Ross Goodyear has returned from the Greene sanatorium.

Mrs. Mary Phelps is keeping house for her friend, Mrs. Amy Bush of Rochester, while the latter is in Boston.

Will Stewart of New York City has given the following books to the library: "Under the Red Robe," by Weyman; "Before Adam," by London; and "James Cafe," by Barbey.

Lloyd Church was a fortunate hunter the last day of the season, getting a deer with 12 spikes.

Only four deer are known as yet to have been secured in town, which is much less than usual.

Letters from Herschel Roberts state he is in Atlanta, Ga., and enjoyed the trip very much.

Mrs. A. L. Miller has knit 100 sponges, besides a helmet, sweater and other work for the Red Cross.

Plainfield Junior High School Notes.

The classes of the junior high school have been very busy this week taking examinations, ending the work of the term.

The boys have been printing report blanks to be used in sending out the term ranks.

Hugh Humphrey, president of the junior class, went last Saturday to the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

The last reports from him were that he was in a serious condition. Many of his friends sent him a postcard showing last week.

Mr. Hill, our junior high school supervisor, Mr. Mayo, the principal of the Cabot junior high school, and Mr. Corrihan, principal of the junior high school at Greensboro, called on us last week.

The Home Economics club met in the classroom Friday afternoon, having a short program in charge of Gara Townsend, Ruth Buxton and Edith Little.

The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 23. The program is in charge of Alice Bartlett, Marjorie Moore and Ruth Hudson.

School closed Friday for a week's vacation.

Noontime is full of interest for those who play musical instruments, as they gather about the piano and practice for a miniature orchestra.

Last week the Winoski Valley Superintendents' club met in Plainfield with Superintendent Lamoine. There were eight present. The senior girls prepared and served a chicken-pie dinner, the menu for which was printed by the boys.

The fireless cooker made last year was used in cooking the chicken, and some vegetables were secured from the school garden. The superintendents pronounced the dinner very successful.

CONSTIPATION CAUSES OBSTINATE HEADACHES

When your head aches you will usually find the bowels have been inactive, and if you relieve this condition, by clearing the intestinal organs of the fermenting congestion of stomach waste, foul gases and bile, the head is relieved immediately.

Remember this the next time you suffer from headache, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin sold by druggists under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is highly recommended as a gentle laxative that acts easily and quickly, without griping or discomfort. It contains no opiate, narcotic, or habit-forming drug, is pleasant to the taste, and a most effective household remedy. Mothers find it especially desirable as a laxative for children.

You can buy Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from your druggist for fifty cents. Get a bottle and have it in the house when needed. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 456 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

HARDWICK

Last night brought to a close the most successful Red Cross campaign imaginable, and when all the reports of the 25 canvassers were in, it was found that the amount that it was thought impossible to raise by the pledge cards, $1,200, had been more than doubled so that the local branch is sure of at least $150 per month for the next twelve months, allowing for some loss.

During the last week in the Red Cross parties were Mrs. J. O. LaJoy, Mrs. E. R. Fletcher, Mrs. P. A. Shattuck, Mrs. Bert Howson and Mrs. B. J. Muleahy.

The Christmas boxes for the soldiers will be packed at the Memorial building next Tuesday from 9 o'clock until 3 p. m. All ladies interested are invited to be present and help in this work.

W. M. Johnson, proprietor of the Idle Hour theatre, is able to be at his playhouse again, after a long illness.

The remains of Mrs. John H. Drew, a former resident of Hardwick, were brought here from Philadelphia, Pa., and placed in the family lot in the Main street cemetery, Rev. William Carner officiating at the grave.

The funeral services were held in Burlington Thursday, Mrs. Drew was living at the home of her son, Dr. Ira Drew, at the time of her death. She will be better remembered here by the older residents.

Judge W. H. Taylor has been in Rutland on business connected with the Vermont supreme court.

Mrs. Marie Jones of Hyde Park was a recent visitor in town.

R. C. Wallace of Morrisville was a business visitor here Friday.

Charles A. Morse, for more than six years operating the monotype casting machine and keyboard in the office of the Hardwick Gazette, left last Wednesday night for the continent at Ayer, Mass., he being one of the last group of drafted men from this county.

Mr. Morse will be greatly missed in this office. P. A. Shattuck, the town clerk, is taking his place at the keyboard until Mr. Apollon can secure a man.

Charles Wescott, watchmaker at Kimball's pharmacy, was called to St. Johnsbury Thursday by the death of his father.

The Red Cross home talent concert at the opera house Thursday evening was not as well attended as the program deserved. There were interesting flag drills by some girls, good vocal quartets, solos, recitations, selections by the orchestra and an interesting stunt by the boy scouts. This entertainment was given to help defray some expenses incurred in the present Red Cross campaign.

The heavy snowstorm of Thursday night played havoc with local telephone and electric lines and men were extremely busy all day Friday trying to locate the trouble with the lines. Several limbs of trees fell on to both lines, thereby causing much inconvenience to both power and telephone users.

Dr. Ira Drew of Philadelphia, Pa., was in town yesterday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. John Drew.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Walker of Burlington were in town yesterday to attend the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. Fannie Drew.

Gentlemen's night of the Friendship club was held with Mrs. Emma Stoddard Friday evening. A chicken-pie supper was served to 17 couples. A program, consisting of violin and piano solos, patriotic songs and speaking, was enjoyed by all.

Clyde Hopkins is entertaining his father and mother from Richmond.

BERLIN

Friday evening at the Berlin town hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Lend-Hand society of the Corner's church, a number of people of the community enjoyed a good program and social hour together. Mrs. Wilbur Brown opened the proceedings with a pianoforte number, "Lilac Blossoms." A trio consisting of Arthur Brown, Perley E. Davis and Clinton Benjamin gave a selection. Arthur Brown sang, "If I Only Had a Sweetheart, Just Like You," while Mrs. Julius Selma recited two pieces, "The Fads of Miss Philmy" and "The Delinquent," by Paul H. Dunbar. E. B. House, as auctioneer, sold off the boxes the ladies had provided, the contents of which, with pleasant talk, were then disposed of.

Miss Mary Bjorn has returned from her visit in Barre and South Ryegate.

Don Ballou of Chelsea is stopping with his cousin, Allan Stoddard.

The World Loves Good Tryers.

H. C. Witwer, the well known humorist, says in the December American Magazine:

"There's nothing the world loves so much as a good tryer. I don't mean the birds that, havin' everything in their favor, includin' a ten-mile start, finishes first in the big race. I'm talkin' about the guys that never get better than second or third, but generally land in the money. The old consistent Charlie that, no matter how many times they're beaten, figures the time to quit is when you're dead and buried."

"Did you ever stop to think that the tryers which never get nowhere is responsible for the other guys' success? They're the babies that make a race of a fight out of it, and if it wasn't for the dubs there'd be no success at all. In order to have winners we got to have losers, don't we? And don't forget that yesterday's loser are to-morrow's winners, and vice president or vice versa, whatever it is."

"A fighter knows that these birds which come up smilin', no matter how many times he drops 'em for the count, is as dangerous as dynamite until he knocks 'em cold. No matter how bad this loser may be battered up, he's always got a chance while he's tryin'."
